If the Participation Certificate is a joint certificate (with or without survivorship rights) CGIF may accept instructions from one or more of the persons listed as Joint Owners above for the redemption, transfer or other disposition of the Participation Certificate or the proceeds thereof, and the Joint Owners listed above hereby consent and agree to such action. Nevertheless, CGIF may, at its discretion, require the consent of all Joint Owners before making such disposition. For Participation Certificates for Individuals and for Tenants in Common, upon the death of the Individual or a Joint Owner, the interest of such party becomes part of his or her estate. For Participation Certificates owned by Individuals or Joint Owners with the right of survivorship having the designation "pay on death" added and a beneficiary or beneficiaries named where indicated, will be redeemable and payable as follows: (1) to the listed beneficiary upon the death of the last surviving Joint Owner, as the case may be. In the case of Joint Owners with right of survivorship, CGIF may pay and/or transfer a Participation Certificate upon the instruction and to the order of the surviving Joint Owner upon the death of the other Joint Owner or Joint Owners, regardless of the designation of a beneficiary above. CGIF shall be protected in making payments and transferring Participation Certificates as set forth in this Application regardless of whether such action is consistent with the claim of any other party to beneficial ownership, and regardless of whether any party to the Participation Certificate is disabled or incapacitated at the time such payment or transfer is requested.
